

Every Dollar Saved by the Church on Insurance Means a Dollar More for Some Good Cause!!!

Why not save therefore from 25% to 35% of the insurance premium you are now paying?

HOW?

The Merchants Underwriters of the Home Fire Insurance Company, having over one half million dollars capital and surplus, sells on strictly preferred risks, such as CHURCHES and PARSONAGES, a policy at the same premium any other reliable stock company charges, and agrees to give back all the profit earned to the policy holder after deducting losses and expenses.

The Annual Saving has Averaged About 35%.

$35.00 Saved Out of Every $100.00.

Many Methodist Churches are doing this. Why don't you?

Ask your local agent about it. If HE can not tell YOU write US.

aminations were approved, they were recommended by the Committee on Admissions, their recommendations from the District Conference were in due form, and by vote of the Conference they were admitted on trial.

Question 5 (Who are readmitted?) was called. The answer was, No one.

Question 7 (Who are received from other churches as local preachers?) was called. The names of Robert A. Jaggars, an elder in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and H. F. Taylor, an elder in the Methodist Protestant Church, were presented, their recommendation from the District Conference, and their subscription to our doctrine and discipline, were in due form, and they were recognized as local elders.

Question 8 (Who are received from other churches as traveling preachers?) was called. The name of L. J. Riddling, an elder in the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarenes, was presented, and having assured the Conference of his agreement with us in doctrine and discipline, he was received as an elder into full Conference connection.

Dr. James Cannon of the Virginia Conference was introduced and addressed the Conference on the Southern Assembly at Waynesville, North Carolina.

Dr. Gross Alexander, book editor, and editor of the Review, was introduced and spoke on the value of the Review to preachers.

The Committee on Public Worship announced that Dr. James Cannon would preach at 3:00 p. m. and at 7:30 the anniversary of the Board of Church Extension would be held, and the chief address would be delivered by Dr. W. F. McMurry.

After other announcements the Doxology was sung and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by C. C. Godden.

THIRD DAY.

The Conference met at 9:00 a. m. with Bishop Candler in the chair. After a hymn was sung, Dr. Z. T. Bennett led in prayer, and the Bishop read and commented on Psalm 90.

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

Announcement was made of the presence of J. Abner Sage, Jr., and P. S. Herron, clerical members of the Conference, and S. H. Emerson, lay delegate from the Arkadelphia District.

A communication was read from the Tuberculosis Sanatorium of Hot Springs and referred to the Board of Education.

A communication was read from Rev. J. R. Dickerson, who has been extremely sick for several weeks, and the Secretary of the Conference was instructed to reply with assurance of the sympathy and prayer. T. D. Scott led the Conference in a season of prayer for Brother Dickerson, and a voluntary contribution of $178.51 was made and turned over to T. D. Scott for him.

Question 22 (Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?) was called. The name of S. W. Rainey was called, he made his report, his character passed, and he was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations. The name of F. W. Harvey was called, the Presiding Elder reported his work, and his character passed.

The Committee on Publishing Interests made its report, which was discussed by Drs. John Anderson and J. A. Anderson, and the report was adopted.

Question 19 (Who are located this year?) was called, and the answer was: F. W. Harvey at his own request.

Under Question 9 (Who are the deacons of one year?) the names of W. T. Menard, A. T. Clanton, Edgar Seay, Don C. Holman, and P. S. Herron were called, their characters passed, they made their reports, their examination was approved, and they were advanced to the Class of the Fourth Year. The name of J. Abner Sage, Jr., was called, his character passed, but not having been before the Examining Committee, he remains in the Class of the Third Year.

Question 14 (What traveling preachers are elected elders?) was called. P. S. Herron, J. C. Williams, J. T. Rodgers made their reports, their characters passed, their examination was approved, and they were elected to Elders' Orders. The name of H. L. Simpson, an elder, was called, his character passed, and his examination was approved. J. E. Waddell had not been before the committee, and the examination of T. M. Armstrong was not approved, but they made their reports, their characters passed, and they remain in the Class of the Fourth Year.

The name of Alexander Crawford was called, and his Presiding Elder reported that he had withdrawn from the church and surrendered his credentials. His credentials were filed with the Secretary of the Conference.

Question 12 (What local preachers are elected deacons?) was asked, and the name of J. Frank Simmons from the Texarkana District was presented. His recommendation by the District Conference was in due form, and he was elected to Deacons' Orders.

Question 16 (What local preachers are elected elders?) was asked and the answer was, None.

Question 4 (Who are admitted into full connection?) was asked. J. W. Mann, A. O. Graydon, L. C. Beasley, J. L. Hoover, T. F. Hughes, M. S. Monk, James Rhodes, C. N. Baker, and H. H. McGuyre, were called to the chancel; and, after addressing the class on some of the most important of the obligations which they were about to assume, Bishop Candler asked the disciplinary questions, which were answered in the affirmative, and they were by vote admitted into full Conference connection.

The time for adjournment having arrived, the Committee on Public Worship announced that T. A. Hearn would preach at 3:00 p. m. and that at 7:30 the anniversary of the Board of Education would be held, and Bishop Candler would make an address.

The Doxology was sung, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by J. M. Cline.

The name of W. F. Rogers was called, his character passed, his examination was approved, and he was advanced to the Class of the Third Year, being already a traveling elder.

FOURTH DAY.

The Conference convened at 9:00 a. m. with Bishop Candler in the chair. A hymn was sung and A. D. Jenkins led in prayer. Bishop Candler read and expounded part of the fourth chapter of John.

The minutes of the previous session were read, corrected, and approved.

George Thornburgh was elected Railroad Secretary, and J. L. Hoover was elected Recording Secretary.

The presence of the following was announced: C. S. Renssion, a clerical member of the Conference, and Dr. G. S. Matlock, of the Arkadelphia District, and L. J. Deloney, of the Texarkana District, and F. G. May, of the Pine Bluff District, all lay delegates.

W. C. Hilliard, Presiding Elder of the Prescott District, announced that J. D. Sorrels had surrendered his credentials as a local preacher, and Alonzo Monk, Presiding Elder of the Little Rock District, announced that E. A. Tabor had surrendered his credentials as a local preacher.

A motion was carried to pay the Recording Secretary for his work.

FIFTH DAY.

MEMORIAL SESSION.

The Conference met in memorial session at 3:00 p. m., Bishop Candler presiding. After a hymn was sung, and prayer led by Alonzo Monk, Bishop Candler ordained those who had been elected to Deacons' Orders.

The Bishop called R. W. McKay to the chair.

Answering Question 21 (What preachers have died during the year?) the Committee on Memoirs made its report, giving the names of W. J. Scott, J. M. D. Sturgis, T. H. Ware, W. C. Toombs, and Mrs. J. C. Rhodes, a preacher's wife. In memory of each of these a life sketch was read, and many words of esteem were spoken by those who had been blessed by the lives of the deceased.

The report of the committee was adopted, and it was ordered that the memoirs be published in the minutes.

The Conference adjourned at 5:00 p. m. with the benediction by R. W. McKay.

SIXTH DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

The Conference convened at 9:00 a. m., Bishop Candler presiding. After religious services conducted by the Bishop, the minutes were read and approved. The Bishop presented certificates of ordination, answering the following questions:

L. J. Riddling, received from the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarenes in Elders' Orders, took the ordination vows.

Question 17 (What local preachers are ordained elders?). The answer was, James Rhodes.

The following resolution was offered and adopted:

"Whereas, The General Conference has made provision for the establishment of a Superannuate Endowment Fund, and,

"Whereas, A considerable sum has been secured and the same is constantly increasing through the efforts of many of the Annual Conferences, and,

"Whereas, The Endowment Fund is now yielding an annual income which is participated in by the Little Rock Conference along with all the other Conferences of the Church without discrimination; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the matter of devising some practicable method by which this Conference may share in the work of increasing said Endowment Fund be referred to a committee consisting of the Joint Board of Finance with instruction to report its plan, if practicable, for consideration by the present session of the Conference.

"FORNEY HUTCHINSON,

"J. L. CANNON,

"STONEWALL ANDERSON."

The Joint Board of Finance was given leave of absence from the Conference room to consider the foregoing report.

Question 22 (Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?) was called. The names of the following were called, their characters passed, and they made their reports: R. G. Rowland, W. W. Nelson, W. F. Evans, Hugh Revely, M. W. Manville, C. O'Rear T. P. Clark, M. K. Rogers, A. D. Jenkins, David Bolls, J. W. Harrell, J. H. Bradford, M. K. Irvin, J. Z. Burleson, A. M. Shaw, F. R. Canfield, W. D. Sharp, L. E. N. Hundley, A. J. Ewing, M. J. Rhodes, W. W. Mills, W. W. Christie, J. J. Mellard, F. N. Brewer, J. F. Taylor, J. H. Cummins, James Thomas, W. R. Harrison, T. O. Rorie.

Question 3 (Who are discontinued?) was called. The answer was, No one.

The Committee on Conference Relations made its report answering Questions 19 and 20:

Question 19 (Who are supernumerary?). The answer was: C. D. McSwain, J. E. Godbey, F. C. Cannon.

Question 20 (Who are superannuated?). The answer was C. C. Godden, James M. Cline, W. J. Davis, James E. Caldwell, R. C. Atchley, E. N. Watson, O. H. Keadle, J. C. Rhodes, H. D. McKinnon, H. Townsend, J. H. Riggan, J. L. Johnston, G. W. Logan, R. J. Raiford, C. O. Steele, C. W. Drake, J. R. Dickerson, C. C. Green, S. A. Hill, E. F. Wilson, S. W. Rainey, E. Garrett, H. Jewell, and J. W. Vantrease.

The report of the committee to which was referred the communication from the Representative Church Commission was read, G. S. Sexton was introduced and spoke to the report, and the report was adopted.

T. D. Scott spoke of the debt on the superannuate's home at Arkadelphia, occupied by Dr. J. H. Riggan, and A. O. Evans, H. E. Wheeler, and J. A. Sage were appointed a committee to meet soon after Conference and devise a plan to pay the debt.

The report of the Board of Education was read and recommitted to the Board for completion.

The report of the Board of Missions was read, amended, and adopted.

The American Bible Society Board made its report, Rev. J. J. Morgan, Agency Secretary of the Society, addressed the Conference on the report, the report was amended and adopted.

The report of the Committee on Temperance was read, Frank Barrett spoke on the report, and the report was adopted.

A motion was carried that when the Conference adjourn, it shall adjourn to meet at 2:30 p. m.

The Conference adjourned with the Doxology and the benediction by Dr. W. B. Palmore.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference met at 2:30 p. m., with Stonewall Anderson presiding, at the request of Bishop Candler.

After religious services conducted by Dr. Anderson, the minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

Mrs. George Thornburgh, Corresponding Secretary of the Little Rock Conference Woman's Missionary Society, was introduced and spoke a few words on the woman's work.

Reports from the following boards and committees were read and adopted: Board of Education, Sunday School Board, Orphanage Board, Board of Church Extension, Committee on District Conference Journals, and Laymen's movement.

Pending the adoption of the report of the Board of Education, J. M. Williams, President of Galloway College, George H. Crowell, President of Henderson-Brown College, A. C. Millar, President of Hendrix College, and Professor Gilbert, of Paine College, addressed the Conference, and a contribution of $73.05 was made for the Mission Building at Paine College.

George Thornburgh spoke to the Orphanage Board's report, and before being adopted the report was amended by adding 25 per cent to the orphanage assessment made on each Presiding Elder's district, thus raising the assessment to $2,500.00 for the Conference.

The report of the Laymen's Movement Committee nominated J. O. A. Bush as Conference Leader, thus answering Question 47, Who is elected Conference Leader?

The following resolution of thanks was adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Little Rock Conference and visitors attending the same hereby express to Rev. Forney Hutchinson, our Conference host; to the pastors and people of the various churches of the city; to Senator Hamp Williams for special courtesies; to the many citizens of Hot Springs who have extended to us the hospitality of their homes; to the press of the city for the very full reports which have been given of the proceedings of the body, and to all others who have in any way contributed to our pleasures and comfort, our sincere thanks for their kindness, and we assure them that we shall cherish the most pleasant memories of our stay in their city.

JAMES THOMAS.
J. A. SAGE.
A. O. EVANS.
P. S. HERRON.

Questions 23 to 46, inclusive, were asked and answered from the statistical tables.

W. P. Whaley resigned from the Committee of the Third Year, and W. D. Sharp was elected to take his place.

A collection amounting to $15.93 was taken for the Secretary's stenographer, and the janitor of Central Church.

A hymn was sung, Bishop Candler led in prayer and announced the appointments, and the Conference adjourned.

W. A. CANDLER, President.

C. J. GREENE, Secretary.

REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

We your committee on temperance submit the following report:

We note with pleasure whatever degree of progress the cause of prohibition has made throughout the country during the past year, but note with regret the apparent loss of considerable territory to the liquor traffic in our own great State on the license vote. This territory, however, is mostly covered by special acts, three mile petitions and other protection, which, after all, make but little material loss in the dry territory of the State.

The result of the late campaign in the State for State-wide prohibition shows that at least 15,000 to 20,000 majority of the white vote of the State was in favor of State-wide prohibition.

We recommend that the following persons be appointed by the Little Rock Conference as its representatives on the State Anti-Saloon League Board: Frank Barrett, George Thornburgh, B. A. Few, W. C. Davidson, J. E. Hicks, J. O. A. Bush and J. L. DeLoney.

We recommend that Revs. B. A. Few and F. F. Harrell be appointed as delegates from this conference to the Inter-State Commerce Conference to be held in Washington, D. C., December 16 to 18, 1912.

We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. Frank Barrett as superintendent of the Arkansas Anti-Saloon League.

F. F. HARRELL, Chairman.

W. P. MURRAH, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We your committee on Publishing Interests submit the following report:

We find the financial statement of the Nashville publishing house and of the Dallas branch very satisfactory.

The editors and publishers of the Western Methodist tell us that they themselves keenly recognize the limitations under which they have been compelled to work; that the experience of themselves and of Conference organs throughout the church is that no two or three Methodist preachers will ever be likely to be able to furnish resources to publish such a paper as the church demands. The church needs publicity organs of commanding force. They believe that the only way to provide such a paper is to make it an institution of the church and put adequate resources under it. To this end, Anderson, Millar & Co. are now seeking to distribute the ownership of the Western Methodist by organizing a stock company looking ultimately to the ownership of the paper by the church. This plan we endorse.

Our church literature is not reaching as many of our people as it should. We believe that, in addition to the work now being done by our pastors and others for the dissemination of our church literature, a Special Church Literature Day should be designated on which special efforts may be made to get the people better acquainted with our church organs and the books and periodicals sent out by our publishing houses.

We offer the following recommendations:

First: That the members of this Conference continue their activity in circulating among our people the church organs and the books and periodicals issuing from our publishing house. And, in order to give special impetus to this work, we recommend that the second Sunday in January, 1913, be set apart as Church Literature Day and that our pastors and people in all the churches of this Conference do their utmost to get before the people these matters. We suggest that the pastors use this subject for their morning hour's deliverance, or at least a part of the hour be devoted to the matter.

Second: We recommend that this Conference go on record as favoring the plan of organizing a stock company for the purpose of making the Western Methodist a church institution.

Third: We believe that the Nashville Christian Advocate has no peer among our church papers and that the Methodist Review and Epworth Era are doing exactly the work which they should do. We, therefore recommend their more universal use.

Fourth: We recommend that R. P. Wilson be appointed as Field Agent of our general publishing house.

Fifth: We recommend the appointment of Prof. C. J. Greene and Rev. W. R. Richardson to represent this Conference on the editorial committee of the Western Methodist.

Respectfully submitted,
W. F. EVANS, Chairman.
J. S. UTLEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: We your Board of Church Extension beg leave to submit the following report:

We are gratified to note the progress made during the past year in building both churches and parsonages. In the annual report of the Secretary of the General Board we find that there are 440 church buildings within the bounds of our Conference and of this number 237 have been aided by the General and Conference Boards. There are 120 parsonages within our bounds, and of this number 73 have received aid. The homeless congregations number only 72 and these are gradually diminishing in number. The work of Church Extension touches almost every corner of our Conference and deserves the sympathy and support of the Church.

That this interest may be more largely developed, especially among the children, we urgently recommend to our pastors the use of the Birthday Jars in the Sunday schools, the offering to go to the Sunday school Loan Fund. These jars are furnished free by the General Office. During the past year only 29 of these jars were in use in our Conference, with contributions amounting to $13.21.

In seeking to organize the Board for more effective service we will in the future confine our consideration of all applications for aid to the written documents only. Therefore, in the future no representation by person will be permitted unless such request be made by the Board for the purpose of more definite information. By this means the Board will have better opportunity for thorough investigation, with equal advantages for all applicants. We therefore urge those making requests to fill out all blanks carefully and correctly. This is of great importance.

Furthermore, that the funds held and administered by this Board may be more thoroughly protected against loss, Refunding Bonds will be required of all Churches or Parsonages to which donations are made. By this means it is possible to insure the return of such funds thus invested in the event the property should be sold or otherwise disposed of for purposes other than those originally intended.

It is furthermore the purpose of your Board to set aside the amount raised during this Conference session with a sufficient amount from the treasury to aggregate $200.00, for the purpose of making loans. This fund is to be known as the Horace Jewel Conference Loan Fund. It is hoped that this nucleus now set apart may grow speedily into a large fund and the laymen of the Church are invited to assist in raising it. It will be administered by the office of the General Board, thus insuring perfect safety.

The Board commends heartily the holding of a meeting of Representatives of Conference Boards of Church Extension and has elected Rev. J. A. Sage and W. W. Nelson to represent the Little Rock Conference at the meeting next spring.

The funds at the disposal of the Board are only slightly in excess of last year, while the applications net almost $7,000.00. It has been extremely difficult to select those places which we deemed most needy and in the end we were compelled to refuse aid to many who really needed it.

The amount collected in the Little Rock Conference for 1912 was $4,048.00, of which amount $3,972.00 was received from the Conference Treasurer and $45.00 from Third Street, $20.00 from G. T. Traylor for the Macon Circuit, $1.00 from Tigert Memorial, $10.00 from Benton Circuit. In addition to this amount $101.15 was raised by special offering for the Loan Fund.

The amount at the disposal of the Conference Board is $2,125.15, which has been distributed as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: We your Board of Missions desire to report as follows:

Your Board has tried to keep in constant touch with our missions throughout the Conference during the year. Some of our missions have done well and show a wise investment of money, others make no definite progress. Our Cedar Glades Mission, made possible by the Little Rock Conference Epworth League, has been a good success and is to be continued under the same plan for another year.

The executive committee held two meetings in Little Rock during the year. These meetings for careful study of the situation, were profitable.

The secretary of the board, by appointment, attended the mid-winter Institute at Nashville. This meeting, it was claimed, surpassed in far reaching program and influence, any former Institute, and no doubt carried much intelligent quickening throughout our Zion.

The general policies laid down for the government of the Board at its last annual meeting, have been carried out and no serious friction has resulted. The same policy will be continued for another year.

The General Secretary of the Parent Board of Missions had a letter before the Board, and Dr. John M. Moore, Secretary of the Home Mission Department, was present and made an illuminating address.

Your Board begs that you continue to emphasize the Every Member Campaign, both as a means of giving Missionary intelligence and for raising the assessments.

We urge the observance of the Week of Prayer, where it has not already been observed, and suggest that January 5 to 12 be the date, or as near that time as may be convenient.

We also request that the Missionary Conference to be held near Waynesville, N. C., June 26-29, 1913, by the Laymen's Missionary Movement in conjunction with the Board of Missions, be given large publicity and hearty co-operation.

Your Board would respectfully call your attention to the fact that offerings for Missions by the Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues, should not go into the regular assessments for Missions, but to make a surplus for Missions.

We are deeply interested in Foreign Missions. We are not doing a tithe of our duty for that great cause. We should loyally and cheerfully pay our assessment and more. However the command to disciple all nations does not imply neglect of home fields in any wise. These home fields are the sources of supply, both of men and money. The neglect of home fields, means the failure of our fertilizing and fructify-ing fountains. The command to the primitive disciples, was to go, beginning at Jerusalem. The command to us is to go, beginning in Arkansas. We are responsible, as are no other people for the preaching in Arkansas, of the gospel according to Methodism. Three phases of the Home Mission question appeal to us for consideration, namely: The needs of country life, the needs of city missions, and the needs of our brother in black.

Because the rural missionary territory is usually remote from the strong charges, its care devolves in a peculiar sense upon the Conference Board of Missions, and the Presiding Elders. It is our first and highest duty to provide the gospel for the weak or indifferent country neighborhoods from which many of our preachers and urban members have come. The enrichment of our city churches has been largely at the expense of rural communities and the revenues of the enriched and prosperous churches should be freely used to improve the sources of supply. It is our judgment that experienced and capable men should be sent to the needy circuits and that the Conference should stand behind these men and guarantee adequate support. We suggest that the minimum salary for a married man be $750.00, and for a single man, $500.00. To provide the local basis for such salaries, we advise that in the formation of rural missions, some strong churches, when possible, be joined with weaker churches, and that the creation of weak stations at the expense of circuits be discouraged.

In our cities and larger towns, the conditions are very different. Mission territory is often under the shadow of strong churches. Social, sanitary, commercial, and local political conditions are involved. The safety and prosperity of a community may be menaced by its neglected districts. The instincts of pride and self-preservation appeal to the strong. Our churches usually hold not merely the wealth, but the leadership of the community. In order to maintain a vital spirituality the leaders need more activity than the mere raising of Conference collections. People need to give not their money only, but themselves. The church that is self-centered, may easily stagnate. One of the greatest blessings for any great church, would be the assumption of obligations for the care of a portion of its community, unable to care for itself. There is imperative need for unification of our city Methodism in local missionary work. There are districts in every city, where railroad men, mill people, or foreigners, are more or less segregated from the other sections, by virtue of the character of their employment. The inevitable immigrations and incidental poverty, make self-supporting churches almost, and in some cases altogether, impossible. The cost of maintaining such missions is such that the Board of Missions cannot assume it adequately without the neglect of the country missions previously mentioned. For the outlet for its varied activities and employment of its diversely gifted members, the strong churches need these contiguous missions as fields of endeavor. Here are wonderful opportunities for Christian service and for the cultivation of brotherly love, between rich and poor, employers and employes. Here some of the most perplexing public problems may be solved as Christ would be pleased to have them settled. We would not dictate, we would not at long range undertake to submit a definite plan or program for any particular church, but we do lovingly suggest that each strong church, where city missions are now maintained or needed, study its field and voluntarily offer to finance and help by personal service those missions that are naturally within their respective spheres of influences. As these strong churches cannot now relieve the Board, we hold ourselves in readiness to co-operate after Conference adjournment, if they decide to undertake such beautiful and Christ-like service. If any church will take over local mission work already provided for by our appropriations, we are ready to transfer such appropriations to other needy missions. If it is more blessed to give than to receive, if the strong should bear the infirmities of the weak, if we would bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ, here is glorious opportunity for the employment of Christian privilege. Who covets this? What church will inspire us to higher and holier endeavor by noble example?

Our duty to our brother in black is potent. They are here. They will stay. Their debasement will react upon us. Their uplift will help us. We should contribute to their schools, give our approval to the improvements of their worthy leaders; and encourage them by preaching for them when afforded opportunity. They look to us for advice and encouragement. Let us not disappoint them.

We recommend the appointment of Forney Hutchinson Conference Missionary Secretary.

The total amount collected and in our hands for distribution was $3,500.00, which has been appropriated as follows:

REPORT OF JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We, the Joint Board of Finance respectfully submit this, our report:

A. W. Douglass takes the place of Carl Hollis, resigned, and is elected Treasurer of the Board.

Report from Endowment Fund for Superannuates, is as follows:

The showing which we were able to make at the close of the last fiscal year, on April last, was very gratifying in comparison with the preceding years. It has been pleasing to us to witness the gradual growth of our work, as indicated by the fact that each year is larger in returns than was its predecessor. This is true of the last year, which was the largest in cash receipts, in the history of the fund, falling only slightly short of thirty-five thousand dollars. The cash assets at the date named, were $208,497.07 and the total resources $319,313.02.

Receipts and Disbursements.

We have received from Conference Treasurer the following amounts.

For Bishops.....	$1,645.00
For Conference Minutes.....	295.00
For Superannuates Endowment Fund.....	21.00
For Delegates General Conference.....	634.00
For Conference Claimants.....	9,134.94

We have received from other sources the following:

From the General Board of Trustees.....	$ 198.75
From the Colvin Fund.....	16.00
From the Conference Board of Trustees.....	90.00
From Publishing House.....	273.00
Brought forward from last year.....	212.19

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD REPORT.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—Your Sunday School Board submits the following report:

In the last year there has been an increase in our Conference work in every department. We rejoice in this and ask the preachers and presiding elders to continue an especial interest in their schools.

We find the Arkadelphia District observed Children's Day in every charge. The Presiding Elder of the Little Rock District reports every charge in his district also, but the reports fail to show it. We rejoice in this effort and interest. The Pine Bluff District comes next with fourteen charges out of twenty observed this day. The Texarkana District observed it in twelve out of twenty charges: the Camden in ten out of twenty and the Prescott and Monticello each observed the day in eight charges. We hope for an observance in every charge and Church next year. Eighty-eight charges out of one hundred and forty-three observed the day.

We recommend for adoption the following:

The sending of your Chairman or Secretary to the annual meeting in January.

The Appropriation of $20.00 for literature for the Chaplain of the Penitentiary and Reform School.

The appropriation of $15.00 per month for Secretary's expense.

The purchase of a trunk of supplies for exhibition purposes at our Conference and institutes.

WASHINGTON CITY CHURCH REPORT.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren—We recommend that this Conference pledge and subscribe to the representative church in Washington, D. C., which is to be for all our people, the sum of $3,000.00, asked for by the Commission and that said amount be apportioned to the several districts in the same ratio as our Foreign Mission assessments, asking each district to voluntarily provide for the same.

Second. We further recommend that the presiding elder appoint a pastor in his District to co-operate with him in securing the amount apportioned to his district.

Third. We respectfully request the Bishop to appoint a Secretary-Treasurer for the Conference to receive and receipt for said fund.

Fourth. We further recommend that the money hereby pledged shall be a memorial fund to Dr. Andrew Hunter, who was the originator and mover of this great movement in the General Conference of 1858. We respectfully request that the other conferences in Arkansas join us in this memorial to Dr. Hunter.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF ORPHANAGE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your committee on Methodist Orphanage, respectfully report to you, that we are gratified with the good management by our present Board of Trustees, and also with the kindness of the many good people of Arkansas, who have rallied to the support of this institution. We pray that God will bless everyone of them a hundred fold. We herewith submit the following report from the Methodist Orphanage Board of Trustees:

"The past year has been one for which we are profoundly grateful to our Heavenly Father. There was no death and very little sickness in the Home. The sickness was confined entirely to new children, that is to say children having already contracted some ailment before coming into the Home.

"Our fiscal year runs from October 1 to September 30. At the close of Sept. 30, 1911, we had in the Home, 29 children. During the year we received 18 children and placed 14, leaving in the Home at present 32. During the existence of the institution we have placed 158 children. If we had kept them all, we would have now in the Home, including those still there 190. With these we could have made a great showing, but we are fully confident that we have pursued the wisest plan in making these 158 children permanent members of families. We not only relieved the church of the burden of supporting them but made the children happy and blessed the homes into which the children went.

"During the year we rejected 26 applications for children. We exact the best possible conditions, social, moral and educational to surround the child before we will place it. We rejected every applicant that indicated that the applicant desired a servant. Our orphan children are entitled to happy homes, and as their guardians, we endeavor to see that only in such are they placed. We have not refused admission to any orphan child. In two instances we declined to take children whose father was living. The cases appealed strongly to our sympathies, but they were not within the letter or spirit of the work of an Orphan's Home.

"During the year, Brother Thornburgh collected $1,571.90, $275.00 of which was spent for furnishings and the other for improvements, and to reduce the debt. The entire indebtedness was reduced to $2,000.00. The total amount invested in the Home is $31,567.42. The value of the property, however, far exceeds the amount invested.

"The internal management of the institution has been very satisfactory. It is a well governed home and a happy family. The amount contributed by the three conferences for the running expense of the Home was $3,148.50. The expenses were $3,659.12, showing a deficit of $10.62, which admonishes us that the full amount assessed must be collected or the assessment will have to be raised.

"Respectfully submitted,

"GEORGE THORNBURGH, President.

"G. H. KIMBALL, Secretary."

Furthermore, your Conference Committee is informed that there is only one salaried person in the whole management of the Orphanage. And yet with this economical management there is a deficit this year of more than $500.00, on running expenses. That the present assessments were made on the conferences when there were only 14 children in the home and now there are 32. And that last year the Little Rock Conference alone lacked $500.00 of paying our assessment.

We therefore recommend:

First. That the Little Rock Annual Conference make an assessment of $2,000.00 and urge that this be paid in full, so that if possible we pay the deficit of this year, and be able to support and maintain this worthy institution in the ensuing year.

Second. We recommend that each congregation throughout the Conference observe one Sunday in April as Orphanage Day and set apart the collection of that day to be paid on the assessment for the Methodist Orphanage.

R. A. McCLINTOCK, Chairman.
S. W. RAINEY, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, would report as follows:

We rejoice to note the marked improvement in the way our Journals are kept. Yet we offer a few suggestions and friendly criticisms. In some of the Journals some leaves have been cut out, in others manuscripts have been needlessly retained. This ought not to be.

But for the omission of one very important word and also the official roll, the Monticello Journal is well kept.

The Little Rock Journal is well and very neatly kept, except one erasure, carelessly made.

The Texarkana Journal has no marginal references.

The Little Rock, Texarkana and Pine Bluff Journals each lack the signature of the Chairman of the District Conference.

The Prescott and Arkadelphia Journals are well kept, and that of the Camden District is a model of neatness and accuracy.

Signed by the Committee.

F. GARLAND MAY, Chairman.
J. J. MELLARD.
J. T. CRENSHAW, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Your Committee on Laymen's Missionary Movement respectfully submits the following report:

We respectfully call attention to the report of this Committee which was adapted at this Annual Conference held at Fordyce, Nov. 15-20, 1911, and which is recorded on page 50 of the Minutes of said Conference. We desire to re-iterate and emphasize that report as an expression of our sentiments as to the plans and purposes of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. We believe that God called this movement into existence at a time of His own choosing; and that its purpose and mission in the world is to awaken the men of the church to a realization of the duties of Christian stewardship at home, as well as to aid in the work of the evangelization of the heathen abroad.

We again respectfully urge upon our presiding elders and pastors the importance of assisting our laymen in the dissemination of useful knowledge of the plans and purposes of our work; the distribution of literature and that our laymen be encouraged in holding some sort of family worship in their homes and conducting religious service where needed.

We earnestly request our presiding elders to confer with the Conference Lay Leader, and, if convenient, so arrange the time of holding the district conferences that he may be able to attend: and especially that a day of each district conference be set apart to the Layman's work under the direction of the Conference Lay Leader and the District Lay Leader.

We recommend that the Conference Lay Leader and the District Lay Leader be members ex-officio of the District Conference.

We nominate J. O. A. Bush for Conference Lay Leader and J. H. Waters for Vice Conference Lay Leader.

Respectfully submitted,

J. O. A. BUSH, Chairman.

J. H. WATERS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Educational Statistics.

Name	Institution	Value	Endowment	Professors	Pupils
Hendrix	College.....	$ 90,000.00	$250,000.00	12	220
Galloway	College.....	114,000.00	18	177
Henderson-Brown	125,000.00	16	213

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We your Board of Education beg to submit the following report:

There were before us the presidents and other officials, of Hendrix, Galloway, and Henderson-Brown Colleges. We have carefully considered the reports and requests from the boards of trustees of these institutions. We have also considered the communications, referred to us, from the General Secretary of Education, the Superintendent of Ministerial Supply and Training, and the Dean of the Biblical Department of the Vanderbilt University. We have given attention to perfecting the organization of your Board, in order that better supervision may be given our educational work.

We note with gratification that the Boards of Trustees of each of our three Colleges are endeavoring to enlarge their equipment and to increase their endowment.

The endowment secured recently for Hendrix College is being collected and the trustees are planning to erect a group of buildings to cost not less than $100,000.00, to be known as the Martin Memorial Group. This will be a fitting monument to the memory of our great layman, Capt. W. W. Martin.

Henderson-Brown is well organized and doing good work. Important and much needed improvements have been recently made in the Science department. This institution is greatly in need of endowment and a building in which to house its boys. The trustees request that their plan to secure $100,000.00 endowment and means with which to erect a boy's dormitory at a cost of not less than $25,000.00, be endorsed, and that Rev. W. F. Evans be appointed commissioner of the College.

Galloway College is planning a forward movement of considerable magnitude. The three Conferences of Arkansas have never done for this institution what it so richly deserves. We are informed that the entire amount contributed to this school, during its history, outside of the town of Searcy, has been less than $20,000.00. Vigorous campaigns have been made in recent years for the enlargement, equipment, and endowment of both Hendrix and Henderson-Brown Colleges. We believe the time has come and the conditions are favorable for the Church to do something worth while for this worthy institution. We heartily endorse the efforts of the trustees to secure $100,000.00 endowment and $125,000.00 with which to erect new buildings. They have asked that Rev. W. C. Watson be put in charge of the campaign and that February 2 be set apart as a time for special prayer for Galloway College and young women of the State and that if practicable the pastors preach a sermon suitable to the occasion.

We recommend the following for adoption:

1. That the applications to the Board of Education for the Classification of Hendrix College as an "A" grade College and of Henderson-Brown and Galloway Colleges as "B" grade Colleges, be endorsed.

2. That, in view of its immediate and urgent financial necessities, the application of Henderson-Brown College to the Board of Education for an appropriation of $1,000.00 be endorsed.

3. That, at the request of the Board of Trustees of Henderson-Brown College a commission composed of Stonewall Anderson, J. H. Hinemon, T. D. Scott, and W. F. Evans be appointed to communicate with the Arkansas and White River Conferences, offering them joint ownership and control in Henderson-Brown College, such as now exists in the case of Hendrix and Galloway Colleges.

4. That A. C. Millar, George H. Crowell, Stonewall Anderson and the Conference Secretary of Education, be appointed delegates to the Conference for Education to be held at Dallas, Texas, April 27, to May 1, with the understanding that the expenses of the Conference Secretary only are to be paid by the Board.

5. That, J. L. Cannon, W. C. Davidson, T. O. Owen be appointed a commission to confer with representatives of adjacent Conferences with a view to uniting a group of such Conferences in the establishment of a preachers' institute similar to that held annually by the Texas Conferences.

6. That the Conference undertakes to raise during the year, under the management of the Conference Secretary of Education as much as $500.00 for our connectional Ministerial Loan Fund.

7. That the Conference undergraduates be urged to pursue their studies in the Correspondence School. If any undergraduate finds it impracticable to do so for lack of sufficient means, he may secure a loan for the necessary fees by application to the Conference Secretary of Education.

8. That we favor the passage of a law forbidding the establishment of any school or Annual Conference preachers institute in the future that is not first endorsed by the Annual Conference within whose bounds it is to be established, and that is not also endorsed by the General Board of Education of our Church.

9. That your Conference Board of Education observe the same principles and require the same fundamental conditions in giving recognition and aid to institutions under its care which the General Board requires in giving aid and recognition.

10. That the following Constitution be adopted for your Board of Education:

"Article 1—Composition of the Board.

"The Board of Education of the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall consist of fourteen members, of which number seven may be laymen, living within the bounds of the Conference. The members of the Board shall be elected by the first session of the Annual Conference after the General Conference on nomination of a committee of three appointed by the President of the Conference at its first session, consisting of two presiding elders and the Conference Secretary of Education. The members so appointed shall serve for a term of four years. At least one-third of the members of the Board at the close of any quadrennium shall be appointed on the new Board for the next quadrennium. If any member of the Board absent himself from as many as two annual meetings of the Board in succession without giving sufficient reason, his place shall be declared vacant. All vacancies occurring shall be filled by the Annual Conference on nomination of the Board. Five members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, provided due notice shall have been given. Announcement of the time and place in open Conference during the session of the Conference shall be deemed sufficient notice, and at other times upon the call of the Executive Committee, notice being given in writing, signed by the Secretary, at least ten days before the time of meeting.

"Article II—Officers of the Board and Their Duties.

"1. The officers of the Board shall be a President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer and Conference Secretary of Education. Except the Conference Secretary, all officers of the Board shall be elected for four years, or until the close of the quadrennium. The Conference Secretary of Education shall be appointed annually by the Bishop in charge on the recommendation of the Board, and shall be a member ex officio of the Board. The officers shall be elected by ballot at the session of the Annual Conference at which the Board is chosen.

"2. The duties of the Presidents and Vice Presidents shall be those usually performed by such officers. It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to keep a record of all the proceedings and acts of the Board and to record the same in permanent form in a book kept for that purpose. The duties of the Treasurer shall be to hold in trust all funds for educational purposes and to pay out same under the direction of the Board or of the Executive Committee. It shall be the duty of the Conference Secretary of Education to superintend the affairs of the Board and to see that its orders and plans are faithfully carried out.

"Article III—The Powers and Duties of the Board.

"The Board shall have oversight of all the educational work within the Annual Conference, and shall require annual reports from all the institutions of learning under its supervision. Such reports shall show (1) the value of grounds, buildings and equipment; (2) the income from (a) tuition, (b) endowment, (c) Conference collections, (d) other sources; (3) the number of teachers employed; (4) the courses of instruction given; (5) the requirements for entrance into the freshman class, if a college or junior college, or for entrance into the high school or academy, if a secondary school, and for graduation; (6) the amount and kind of debt; (7) the amount of endowment. It shall be the duty of the Board to recommend all assessments upon the Conference for educational purposes; to recommend loans or gifts either to students or institutions; to make application to the General Board of Education for the classification of schools within the Conference; to make full report of its work to the General Board through its Secretary, including the educational statistics of the Conference to the General Board and the names and addresses of candidates for the ministry; to advise and when wise to co-operate with the trustees of the institutions within the Conference in securing endowment and adequate equipment; to co-operate with the General Board and other educational agencies in correlating existing institutions and in establishing new institutions if, in the judgment of the Board and the Annual Conference, such institution seems necessary or expedient.

"All recommendations, plans, and Acts of the Board to become valid must be approved by the Annual Conference, provided that all recommendations, plans, and acts of the Board during the interim of the Annual Conference must be submitted to the ensuing Annual Conference for ratification.

"The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers of the Board. The committee shall meet on the call of the President or Conference Secretary.

"The Executive Committee shall have general supervision of the educational work of the Conference during the interim of the annual meetings. It shall counsel and aid the Conference Secretary of Education in his duties, and shall take all necessary steps to carry into effect the plans and directions of the Board.

"Article V—General Regulations.

"In order that the institutions may be recognized, supported, and commended to the patronage of our people as Methodist schools they must meet the following conditions:

"1. They must be owned and controlled, according to the law of the Church, by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

"2. They must conform to the standards and requirements adopted and published by the Commission on Education.

"They must work in harmony with the Church's idea of a correlated system of schools for the entire church."

11. That the Bishop be requested to make the following appointments: President of Hendrix College, A. C. Millar; Professors in Hendrix College, C. J. Greene and C. S. Rennison; Commissioner of Education, James Thomas; Commissioner of Galloway College, W. C. Watson; President of Henderson-Brown College, George H. Crowell; Professors in Henderson-Brown College, P. H. Willis and R. C. Rhodes; Commissioner of Henderson-Brown College, W. F. Evans; Principal Stuttgart Training School, A. P. Few; Conference Secretary of Education, Rev. W. C. Davidson.

12. That the following be elected members of the Boards of Trustees of the Colleges: Hendrix College, Rev. T. D. Scott, J. A. Buchanan, Rev. Forney Hutchinson and J. F. Giles to succeed themselves and Rev. W. C. Davidson to take the place of Rev. T. H. Ware; Galloway College, Adam Trieschman to take the place of W. T. Woolbridge; Henderson-Brown, O. A. Graves to take the place of J. O. A. Bush and J. A. Parker to succeed Rev. J. L. Cannon, Capt. C. C. Henderson, Rev. J. C. Rhodes, Rev. W. F. Evans, W. W. Brown, being elected trustees to succeed themselves. The amount assessed this Conference by the General Board is $2,187.00.

13. That the following be made the assessment for education for the ensuing year:

BIBLE BOARD.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your Bible Board, beg leave to report that we find the American Bible Society is in a flourishing condition. Last year it issued 3,691,201 volumes of the Scriptures. It now prints the Bible in 112 languages and dialects. It employs more than 1200 col-porteurs, three of whom are working in the State of Arkansas. Last year 1,168,262 copies of the Scripture were distributed in China alone. Since the printed word of God is the greatest missionary power in the world, the support of this work cannot be neglected.

The Society is doing most effective work in its Southwestern Agency, in which Arkansas is included. Forty-two colporters are at work, one of whom, Rev. Wm. Sproule, has traveled this year 4,026 miles through Southern Arkansas, visited 2,518 homes and distributed more than 1,500 Bibles, and this State receives the largest ratio of service of any in the agency. 7,500 homes in five States of our agency were found in which there was no Bible, and in all 42,658 Bibles were circulated. We commend most highly the work of Rev. J. J. Morgan, the Agency Secretary.

Your Board recommends that every pastor present to his congregation the work and need of the American Bible Society, and calls attention to the fact that ample material for sermons and addresses will be gladly furnished by the Depository at Dallas, Texas. Here more than 50,000 volumes of the Scriptures are on deposit in 35 languages and the work among the mountaineers, immigrants, Mexicans and Negroes, has been prosecuted with most gratifying success.

Our collection for the Society this year is $370.00, double the amount received last year, and we recommend the same assessment next year, namely $500.00, thus prorated to the several districts:

Prescott	$65.00
Arkadelphia	62.00
Texarkana	62.00
Pine Bluff.....	72.00
Monticello	72.00
Camden	72.00
Little Rock	95.00

Respectfully submitted,
J. A. PARKER, Chairman.
H. E. WHEELER, Secretary.

Memoirs

REV. THOMAS H. WARE.

Thomas Ware was of a Methodist family and of Scotch-Irish ancestry. He was born in Talladega, Alabama, March 2, 1846. The family came to Arkansas in 1858 and settled in Calhoun County. Though he was only a boy during the war, he found his way into the Confederate ranks and greatly enjoying the adventurous life of a scout, he rendered most efficient service.

He was converted in 1868. It was a complete revolution. He joined the Church, was licensed to preach and was admitted into the Traveling Connection by the Little Rock Conference, all in the same year, 1868, and thenceforth, completely surrendered to Christ, his one question was, "What will you have me to do?"

His first appointment—1868—was to DeWitt. In 1869 he was sent to Belfast; in 1870 to Austin circuit; in 1871 to White River; in 1872 to Hot Springs; in 1873-4 to Bayou Meto; in 1875 to Hickory Plains; in 1876-7 to Ouachita; in 1878-9-80 to Center Point; in 1881 to Lonoke.

In 1882 he was appointed Presiding Elder on Monticello District, which he served four years. And from that time till the end of his life he was kept in district work, except 1891, stationed in Prescott; 1892-3 agent for Hendrix College; 1902 agent for the Orphanage and 1906 Camden Station. About twenty-five years in district work, during which time he presided over every foot of the territory of the Little Rock Conference.

For years he had been in feeble health. Soon after the last Conference he was seriously ill, but rallied; attacks recurred again and again. His physicians assured him that his end was near and would likely be sudden, but he continued to work until the last. He passed away June 9, 1912.

He was a member of the last three General Conferences. He had been trustee of Hendrix College since 1894. He will be sorely missed everywhere.

Brother Ware never disappointed a friend, never wounded an enemy, his tongue knew no deceit, no detraction, no bitterness. He suffered affliction without complaint, detraction without reply, injustice without resentment. He did not parade his talents, nor boast of his achievements.

J. H. RIGGIN.

REV. J. M. D. STURGIS.

Rev. J. M. D. Sturgis was born in Columbia County, Georgia, October 10, 1835, and died in Prescott, Arkansas, April 20, 1912. In 1860 he removed from his native State and settled near Haynesville, Louisiana, where the same year he married a Miss Bugg. She died in 1880. In 1886 he married Mrs. Dora Blakely, who died January 31, 1892, and on March 7, 1895 he married Mrs. Flora Williams who survives him. Brother Sturgis served as a Confederate soldier during the entire war. He enlisted in 1861, was lieutenant in the Third Arkansas. Afterward in Col. J. R. Hardee's Regiment and later was detailed for duty in the Quartermaster's department, until the end of the war.

He was converted in early manhood and received into the M. P. Church, in which he began his ministry. He was received into the M. E. Church, South, as a traveling preacher by the Little Rock Conference in 1882.

In 1882-3-4 he was appointed to Hampton; in 1885-6 to Mt. Pleasant; in 1887 to Lake Village; in 1888 to Carlisle and Hazen; in 1889-90 to Austin; in 1891 DesArc and DeVall's Bluff; in 1892 to Caledonia; in 1893-4 College Hill; in 1896 Bearden and Millville; in 1897 Buckner and Stamps; in 1898 DeWitt. In 1899 he was granted a superannuated relation, which was continued until the Master called him home.

In 1905 he and his wife took charge of the Methodist Orphanage at Little Rock; but at the end of seven months his increasing infirmity obliged them to resign the work. He resided at Cabot and Prescott, much revered by the preachers and the people. For some years he was greatly afflicted, drawn with rheumatism, unable to lift up his head, yet a constant attendant on preaching.

He was as a preacher a workman needing not to be ashamed; as pastor, Sunday school worker and leader of social meetings, above the average. He was a true friend and those who knew him loved him.

J. H. RIGGIN.

REV. W. J. SCOTT.

William J. Scott, son of James Scott, was born in South Carolina, January 5, 1825, and died at Goldthwaite, Texas, April 7, 1912, in the 88th year of his age. We do not know when or where he received license to preach, but he was admitted on Trial by the Arkansas Conference at its last session before its division, November, 1853, in a class of fifteen of which J. E. Caldwell is now the sole survivor. We are not able to give his appointment for that year, but in 1854 he was sent to Dallas, in 1855 to Red River, in 1856 to Benton, in 1857-8 to Saline, in 1859 to St. Charles, and returned in 60; in 1861-2 to White Sulphur Springs, in 1863 to Falcon, 1864-5 Moscow, in 1866 Hempstead Colored Charge, 1869 Mt. Moriah. In 1868 he located, but in 1869 was readmitted and sent to Lacy, in 1870 to Mt. Pleasant, 1871-2 to Plum Bayou, 1873 to Maumelle. In 1874 he was placed on the supernumerary list, but was effective in 1875 and appointed to Murfreesboro and returned in '76. After this he was supernumerary twelve years; in 1888 he was granted a superannuated relation which he held twenty-three years, until the Master called him home. In this long period of infirmity he enjoyed the affectionate regard of all that knew him. His first wife, Sarah J. Rogers, was born September 8, 1828, and died October 25, 1863. He married Mrs. Ashley Thornton April 7, 1864. His first wife brought him five children. Two of the boys made preachers of signal ability, members of our Conference well known twenty years ago. His second wife was already the mother of J. T. Thornton of the St. Louis Conference. She became the mother of two daughters by Scott, one of whom is the wife of Rev. S. C. Dean, the other Mrs. Holland of California. With the last he made his home for many years. The distance, his lack of means, and infirmity have kept him from attending the sessions of the Conference, until now more than half the brethren have no knowledge of him. We who knew him assure you he was worthy, and we will rejoice to meet him again.

J. H. RIGGIN.

REV. W. C. TOOMBS.

Born November 29, 1865, in Tennessee; licensed to preach in the White River Conference July 25, 1888; and admitted into the White River Conference in 1891. In that Conference he served Calamine circuit in 1892, Cedar Grove circuit in 1893, Marmaduke the next two years, Swifton in 1896, Jacksonport in 1897, Alicia in 1898, Melbourn in 1899, McCrory in 1900, Holly Grove in 1901, Searcy circuit in 1902, Weldon in 1903, Paragould circuit in 1904.

He was transferred to the Little Rock Conference and served Hamburg circuit in 1905 and 1906, Parkdale in 1907, Mabelvale in 1908, Bryant in 1909 and 1910, and Austin 1911 and 1912, where he died.

He was a faithful Methodist preacher and a consecrated Christian. His last presiding elder and others have testified that his death was a great Christian triumph. He knew of Death's approach, put his house in order, and met Death triumphantly. Those who knew him say he has gone above.

W. P. WHALEY.

MRS. J. C. RHODES.

Mrs. Virginia Isabella Rhodes, wife of Rev. J. C. Rhodes, died at her home in Arkadelphia, Arkansas, December 28, 1911. For thirty years she had shared the vicissitudes of our itinerant system. She and Brother Rhodes were married in November, 1881. Her maiden name was Scott. She was born near Benton in Saline County, Ark., April 17, 1851. Her father, "Uncle Robert" Scott, was a pioneer settler of that section, and for nearly three quarters of a century was one of the chief supporters of our church in that community, always standing for the highest type of morality and the purest form of spiritual teaching. His home was ideal in many ways. Frugal, a moderate plenty, a home of pure literature and high thinking, a home of music and refinement. It was in a community where the church was the greatest factor in creating ideals and fixing modes of thought. Reared in such an atmosphere, children grow up in the Lord. Mrs. Rhodes formally professed religion and joined the church at the age of fifteen. At the age of seventeen her active church life began as a teacher in Sunday school, a work she loved to the last. Her young womanhood possessed those qualities that largely set the standard in her community. She was a leader. Thus in her church and community she lived and wrought to noble purpose. From this sphere she moved to that of an itinerant preacher's wife, which she seemed to regard as a field for greater opportunity. Here she lived in great fidelity to the sacred trust to the end, thirty years.

According to God's word, Sister Rhodes was truly a great woman. Greatness does not consist in financial success or position in the world's social life, but in service. In her sphere, she gave herself without stint, in wisdom and strength. She may not have known it, but she gave the very best service a preacher's wife or any woman can give. "She looked well after the ways of the household: her children rise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praiseth her." With a meager income Brother and Sister Rhodes maintained their family in respectability, gave the boys a college and university training, kept out of debt and bought a comfortable home in Arkadelphia. Sister Rhodes was the manager and financier in this wonderful feat. Her husband said, I gave her all the money and worried over nothing. She was frugal, methodical, wise and motherly. All this orderly service gathered about and pointed to the church. She was regular in her attendance and the boys must go. Home and church—this was her sphere of service; and how well she wrought! Her three sons educated, cultured, religious—all are Methodist preachers. Moffett J., stationed at DeQueen; James R., at Wesson and Robert C. occupies a chair in the University of Mississippi. She has given to the church and to the world, values that cannot be estimated in terms of commerce. Many women have done, and are doing great service in other spheres, but this kind of woman in this sphere of service excels them all.

T. D. SCOTT.
